BRITISH MATHEMATICS LECTURER
SCHEDULED AT UM JULY 6-8

MISSOULA--

Dr. Eric Primrose, senior lecturer at the University of Leicester, England, will present lectures on geometry at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday (July 7 and 8) at the University of Montana.

The lectures, which will take place in room 109 of the Math-Physics building on the UM campus, are open to the public without charge.

Wednesday's lecture is entitled "Finite Geometry and Block Designs," and the Thursday lecture is entitled "Non-euclidean Geometry."

Dr. Primrose is speaking before the National Science Foundation Summer Institute in Mathematics for Secondary Teachers at UM. His appearance at the institute is made possible by the Visiting Foreign Scientists Program of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Dr. William R. Ballard, a UM professor of mathematics, is director of the summer institute.
